What Is Going On Tonight
Obsequies, Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., meets at 8:07 Main street.
Trinity Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M., stated convocation at Masonic hall.

The November meeting of the town school committee was held Wednesday night in the selectmen's office in the town building and was called to order at 8:05 by Chairman Dr. F. E. Gullis. Secretary Edgar A. Case read bills, report of Treasurer John B. Paulhus as follows: Day school, 26 cases, all investigated; night school, 15 cases, all people located and matters adjusted.

Mr. Case reported that one of the substitute teachers in the grade schools had stated to him that if her salary was not raised from $5 per day to $6 per day she would resign. The regular pay for substitutes is $5 per day, and if this teacher's pay was raised to $6 it could not be done without raising all the substitute teachers a like amount. It was voted that no action be taken on this request.

A request from the teachers at Windham High school that an extra day for the Christmas holidays be granted, so that the teachers might be able to spend Christmas day at home, was presented by Mr. Case. The school calendar calls for a session of the schools on Friday, Dec. 24th, and as many of the teachers live at some distance from this city they would be unable to reach their homes before Christmas evening. The teachers from the grammar schools had made no request for this added day. It was voted that as the teachers would be unable to get home for Thanksgiving, the school calendar be changed to read: All schools of the town of Windham shall close Thursday night, Dec. 23d, for the regular Christmas holidays, to give the teachers a chance to reach their homes in time to spend Christmas with their families. It was voted that the janitors now in the employ of the town at the various school buildings be continued in office for the present school year. Following the reading of the regular bills, which were voted paid, adjournment was taken at 8:45.

At a meeting held at the Elms Tuesday night tenants of the American Thread company properties were awarded prizes for the best kept yards and window boxes during the past year. General F. E.

Kaley of New York attended the meeting and congratulated the winners. This awarding of prizes has tended to keep the properties in better condition than ever before, and the policy will be continued. Prizes were awarded by Charles W. Hill.

The following program was presented: Song, America; duet, piano and violin, Miss Helen Welch and George Lewis; vocal solo, Joseph Duval; story, Mrs. Charles H. Beebe; vocal duet, Misses Ethel Perkins and Alice Ealey; story, Mrs. Charles H. Beebe; vocal solo, Joseph Duval; vocal solo, Miss Martin; remarks, Agent Don H. Curtis and Gen. Charles W. Hill. Miss Isabelle O'Brien was accompanist for the musical selections. Later ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Dancing to music by a three-piece orchestra was enjoyed.

At the first of the season Windham High and Stonington High agreed to play one game this season, in Willimantic, Nov. 13th. Wednesday a telephone call was received from the Stonington manager cancelling the game. His reason was that a past occasion members of the eleven had nearly become involved in a fracas with Willimantic sports and they would not come to this city because of that. They would, however, play Windham at Stonington. The Windham boys are wondering if the Stonington management is hard up for money, as the reason given for not coming here is a weak one. It is known that Stonington has a reputation of being the nearest brick town on the map. Windham eleven and Norwich eleven can cite times when it was most agreeable to have them after Stonington had been administered a trimming, the fans there evidently not yet being able to take a beating without wanting to fight afterwards. The spirit there may be different now, but experience says no.

Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, at the session of the Windham county superior court in this city Wednesday morning granted Mrs. Madeline Klein, of Norwich, a divorce from Emil Klein, now of New York. She was also granted the custody of two minor children, Antoine 19 and George 16. Klein was also ordered to pay $1500 alimony (with- out fault) to Mrs. Klein. The original complaint alleged habitual intemperance, this being alleged to include the charge of cruelty. Brown and Perkins of Norwich represented Mrs. Klein, and Charles L. Porter of Putnam represented Emil Klein.

Mrs. Klein testified that she was married to defendant February 10, 1891, and lived with him until June, 1919. For the past five and one-half years she had resided in Brooklyn. She told of numerous instances of cruelty on the part of the husband. July 4, 1916, while under the influence of liquor he held a gun in his hand and threatened to shoot her. Later he became fighting and she used use of intoxicants and called her names and abused her. One time he caught her by the throat and forced her to the floor, and at another time he yanked a chair from beneath her. Once when she was to take an automobile ride with her son he grabbed her foot and dragged her out onto the ground. He did not know if it was her foot or his, and she did not know where he got it. He was all over her and she was all over him. He was very cruel and she was very much afraid of him. She told of many occasions when he wished his wife had been under the sod twenty years ago and that she could go to Hell as far as he was concerned. There was no reason for these actions on his part. Often she and the children went without food and clothing and she had been compelled to take in washwork. Then her health failed, she said, and she was very weak and she took up farm work. Her husband left her in June, 1919, and later came back and took practically all the household goods, and then she went to live with one of her older sons. Once after he had been arrested for non-support her husband sent her $100. He was a heavy drinker and often she took empty flasks out of his pockets or found them about the property.

Emil Klein, a son, now a chief petty officer in the U. S. navy told of leaving home when 17 because of intemperance treatment accorded him by his father. His mother he said, received worse treatment than he did. He had contributed as much as he could spare to support his mother. He had been stationed at the Elms.

Mrs. A. Crawford Tells How Cuticura Healed Little Girl

"My little girl's trouble started with small pimples on the back of her head and they spread down her back. The pimples were hard and red and they itched and burned terribly. She scratched and irritated them and they later developed into sore eruptions. Her hair fell out and became thin and dry, and scales fell off on her clothing."

"I used a free sample of Cuticura and the pimples commenced to dry up. I bought more and when I had used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Alonso Crawford, 83 Parker St., Bangor, Maine, Jan. 23, 1920.

For every purpose of the toilet and bath Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are wonderfully good. Sample Free by Mail. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden, Mass. Sold everywhere. See box of Cuticura for full directions. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

At Newport, R. I., for the past eight years. His father had always used intoxicating liquors and witness told of a time when he came home from a clam-bake and fell off the veranda into a flower bed. His father had been drinking just once, in his recollection, and that time he was too drunk to know what he was doing. Witness, he thought, had affected the mind of his father and made him unable to fall. His father took been a carpenter and he believed that in his time had considerable means.

Court adjourned at 12:30 o'clock until Friday morning at 10 o'clock when a short calendar session will be held. Because of the meeting of the Manufacturers' Association this (Thursday) evening the conference of the City Industrial and Plant committees with Dr. Foster of New York, scheduled to be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening has been postponed.

Thomas Tennant was found guilty of assaulting his daughter, Mrs. Alice Cyr, of 56 Howe street, Wednesday morning in the police court. He was fined five dollars and costs amounting to $9.15 and sentenced to thirty days in jail. Judgment being suspended and he was placed on probation for six months. He was also warned that this was his last chance and if he failed to behave in the future he would go to jail. The assault took place Tuesday noon. Mrs. Cyr stated that she was eating dinner with her mother, at the latter's home, No. 128 Main street, when her father came in. He had been drinking and he struck her on the side of the head, knocking her glasses across the room. He was frequently in this condition, and did little toward supporting his family.

Mrs. Lillian Tennant, wife of the accused, substantiated her daughter's statement and said her husband had lost many jobs because of liquor. He did not know if it was her foot or his, and she did not know where he got it. He was all over her and she was all over him. He was very cruel and she was very much afraid of him. She told of many occasions when he wished his wife had been under the sod twenty years ago and that she could go to Hell as far as he was concerned. There was no reason for these actions on his part. STAFFORD SPRINGS
Andrew Andrejsky, aged 11 years, was committed to the Connecticut School for Boys by Deputy Judge Taft in the borough court Wednesday morning. The boy has been on probation for several months as a result of having committed thefts in some of the local stores. Tuesday evening he was caught trying to get into the office of the C. H. Moore company. As he had seemed to be growing worse instead of better Judge Taft decided it would be better for him if he were committed.

Peter Wargo and Andrew Bertha were arrested on complaint of County Grand Warden Bodman of Rockville, Wednesday for trapping during the close season on skunks, and each was taxed a fine and costs amounting to $20.60. The case was tried before Judge Heald of the borough court.

Stanza post of the American Legion will be accompanied by the Phoenix Liberty band when they take part in the Armistice day parade in Rockville today (Thursday).

WINDHAM
The Woman's Missionary society held its third meeting this season with Mrs. C. R. Utley, 18 women being present. The devotional service was led by the president, Miss Dorothy Brown. The roll was called by the secretary, Miss Grace Bates, each member responding with an item of current events. At the short business session it was voted to devote the afternoon offering of $2 to the gift for Mrs. Charles Daniels of Boston, the retiring president of the W. B. F. M. The program was in charge of Miss Harriet Child, who gave an interesting resume of the second chapter of Christian America, and later read extracts from personal letters from a missionary in India, which were accompanied by photographs of scenes in India. The sewing for the family of Rev. J. A. Hallmarks of Dubois, Pa., was practically finished and other work will be taken up at the next meeting, which will be held with Miss Emma Larrabee Wednesday, Nov. 17th. Tea was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hatch started Tuesday morning for their winter home in Winter Haven, Fla.

The topic for the C. E. meeting next Sunday evening in Winning Our Friends for Christ. The leader is Polly Bixby.

Commencing next Sunday the service at St. Paul's church will be held at 3 p. m. one-half hour earlier than through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbe have gone to South Windham to live in the Guilford Smith house during Mr. and Mrs. Smith's absence in California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Maine went to Groton Long Point Sunday to close their cottage. Mr. Maine's sister, Mrs. Arthur Williams, accompanied them.

The members of the Woman's Bible class met with Mrs. R. T. Bixby Monday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Lathrop's Sunday school class met with a successful food sale Saturday for the benefit of the New York relief fund. The proceeds and gifts amounted to nearly $60, which sum will support an Armenian child for one year.

Rev. A. W. Clifford attended the state conference of Congregational ministers in Bridgeport this week.

At a business meeting of the L. A. S. Monday afternoon it was voted to buy new doors to replace those that used to be between the dining room and the back hall but which were removed several years ago and cannot be found.

Sunday afternoon a car in turning out for a herd of cattle drove into a gully filled with leaves near the Subcity farm and overturned, damaging the car, which was taken to the Road yard. About 5 a. m. Mr. Balfour, who lives in the back road district, was on his way to Hartford and in the drive for ran into the bank in front of Mrs. Mason Bates'. The car was overturned and smashed. Mr. Balfour was pinned under it. Edward Bailey and Fred Gee assisted in extricating him from the wreck and it was found that he had two ribs broken and more serious injuries are feared. About 7 o'clock as Harold Leffingwell was driving his touring car out of the yard he saw one of the C. E. Leffingwells' truck coming from Willimantic at a good rate of speed. Seeing that he could not cross in time to get on the right side of the road he got to Willimantic, he turned his car up on the bank in his own yard and stopped. The driver of the Leonard car put on both brakes, which turned the car completely around, crashing into the Leffingwell car and so badly damaging it that although Mr. Leffingwell was able to run it into the garage under its own power it probably cannot be repaired. No one was injured, although an elderly man who was in the rear seat of the truck has a lame back as a result of the accident.

Who Discovered the Secret of Flavor?

COFFEE is said to have been discovered in Abyssinia by the Arabian shepherds, who observed that the sheep browsing on the wild coffee shrub became elated and active.

The special rich coffee-flavor and aroma of La Touraine Coffee is also a secret, discovered nearly a generation ago by the group of men who founded the House of Quinby in Boston. It is due to a formula by which a few of the finest coffees are blended to bring out the best that is in each. Then these coffees are roasted in just the right way to make the most delicious cup of coffee you can obtain at any price. You can always be sure that the secret of La Touraine goodness is guarded—the formula never departed from.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HINDENBURG LINE MODEL

ON EXHIBITION HERE
The Hindenburg line in miniature but complete down to the last detail, is to be exhibited for the rest of the week in the big store in the Thayer building which has been kindly donated by Judge John M. Thayer to the exhibitor, Capt. G. W. Dever.

Capt. Deverworth was severely wounded and gassed while serving in France with the Canadian Engineers and made the model while he was convalescing from his wounds. It has been favorably commented on by the general staff and the army war college. It shows a section of terrain near Bellecourt in the St. Quentin sector and gives an admirable idea of the actual field conditions in the World War. In constructing the model, Capt. Deverworth used 2,000 feet of lumber, 530 old newspapers, 5,000 feet of miniature barbed wire, 300 yards of wire screen, 5 gallons of coloring material, 250 boxes of tacks, 6 gallons of glue, 12,000 miniature rivet posts and 17,360 miniature sandbags.

Over 2,000 battle photographs are shown with the model. There is no charge for exhibit but those who wish to donate may do so.

DAVIS THEATRE

The new Wallace Reid picture, "The Dancin' Fool," coming to the Davis Theatre next Friday and Saturday, is a veritable revue of the latest jazz dance steps as well as an unusually entertaining screen comedy.

As a country youth lately come to New York to work at a six-dollar-a-week job in a factory, "The Dancin' Fool" is a veritable comedy of the situation. It is a story of a young man who is so much in love with a girl that he is willing to do anything for her, even to become a dancer.

The animal used for my outfit must have been very tame, as it was afterward. "The Dancin' Fool" is a veritable comedy of the situation. It is a story of a young man who is so much in love with a girl that he is willing to do anything for her, even to become a dancer.

The second feature is Jack Dempsey in the Million Dollar serial, "Dare Devil Jack," which is teeming with thrills. Trailing the Dempsey is a very interesting and educational picture.

Ruddigore Coming to the Davis

The production of "Ruddigore" at the Davis Theatre on Wednesday, November 11, marking the beginning of the season of the theatrical season. This wonderful comic opera has been running for months both in London and in New York, and its lively music, its merry satire and its clever plot have made it a veritable triumph.

The originality of the story of "Ruddigore" has been the subject of lavish praise. The author, Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, has created a masterpiece of the comic opera. The story is a tale of a young man who is so much in love with a girl that he is willing to do anything for her, even to become a dancer.
